Celebrate Hulu's 15th with 15 Buzzworthy March Premieres & Finales

This March, Hulu is turning 15—practically a lifetime in streaming years! To celebrate this milestone, Hulu has planned a jam-packed, month-long rollout of buzzworthy premieres and finales. Since 2008, Hulu has been the home for series and films that inspire conversation, impact trends, and keep our viewers endlessly entertained. Now, in honor of our 15th Anniversary, we're giving everyone a peek into the 15 premieres and finales that we're most excited about this month, in order of launch! #1 WRECK: COMPLETE SEASON 1 (FREMANTLE) TRAILER Synopsis: Fremantle's UK series "Wreck" is a tense thriller, mixing comedy with a slice of slasher, set aboard The MS Sacramentum cruise ship. The series follows 19-year-old new recruit, Jamie, as he infiltrates the 1000-strong crew in a desperate race to find his missing sister. She was working aboard the same vessel on a previous tour and vanished mid-charter. Jamie is initiated into cruise life and gets a crash course on the tribes within the staff: the theatre kids, the mafias and the low-paid workers. For this overworked and underpaid crew, life below deck can be an odyssey of partying and excess… and they remain oblivious to the bloodthirsty murders taking place on board. Jamie is forced to turn detective and uncover the sinister truth. Cast: The series stars Oscar Kennedy ("Ladhood") as Jamie, Thaddea Graham ("The Irregulars") as Vivian, Jack Rowan ("Noughts + Crosses") as Danny, Harriet Webb ("I May Destroy You") as Karen, Jodie Tyack ("The Window") as Pippa with new faces Louis Boyer as Sam, Anthony Rickman as Olly, Amber Grappy as Lauren, Diego Andres as Jerome, Peter Claffey as Cormac, Miya Ocego as Rosie, Warren James Dunning as Beaker, Ramanique Ahluwalia as Lily and Alice Nokes as Sophia. Credits: Created and written by Ryan J. Brown, "Wreck" is produced by Chris Martin for Euston Films, part of Fremantle with support from Northern Ireland Screen.
