
UFC Pay-Per-Views Now Available Through ESPN+ on Hulu

After the launch of ESPN+ on Hulu in March, our viewers have tuned in heavily to sports, with golf, UFC, and hockey being some of the most popular sports for Hulu viewers through ESPN+.

Starting today, we're continuing to elevate the sports experience on Hulu with the launch of UFC pay-per-view events.

Viewers subscribed to either The Disney Bundle or the ESPN+ on Hulu add-on can purchase pay-per-view events directly in the Hulu app, starting with UFC 262, taking place Saturday, May 15. Eligible viewers must be billed by Hulu to access and watch UFC pay-per-view on Hulu. After purchasing, pay-per-view events can be found under "My Stuff" in the new "Purchases" tab. Those billed by Disney can purchase through ESPN.com or the ESPN app.
