New Deal with Twentieth Century Fox Television Distribution to Bring Past Seasons of SHOWTIME's Flagship Drama Series to Hulu Beginning Today

SANTA MONICA, CA (August 1, 2016) – Hulu and Twentieth Century Fox Television Distribution today announced a new agreement that will allow Hulu subscribers to watch and discover the critically acclaimed and multi-award-winning series Homeland from the beginning. Starting today, seasons one through four of SHOWTIME's hit drama series are available to Hulu subscribers at www.hulu.com/homeland.

"On the heels of another critically acclaimed season and multiple Emmy® nominations, HOMELAND is the perfect addition to Hulu's growing library of premium exclusive programming," said Craig Erwich, SVP and Head of Content, Hulu. "Both incredibly gripping and addictive, Homeland is television at its very best," said Gina Brogi, EVP Worldwide Pay TV & SVOD at Twentieth Century Fox Television Distribution. "This series is ripe for the binging and we're excited for Hulu's fan base to experience the adrenaline rush that Homeland offers season after season."

Produced by Fox 21 Television Studios, Homeland was developed for American television by Alex Gansa and Howard Gordon, and is based on the original Israeli series Prisoners of War by Gideon Raff, which streams exclusively in the U.S. on Hulu. Along with Gansa and Gordon, the executive producers for season six will be Chip Johannessen, Lesli Linka Glatter, Patrick Harbinson, Michael Klick, Gideon Raff, Avi Nir and Ran Telem.
