
Attention, College Students! Stream Hulu For $1.99/Month

Just in time for the new semester, Hulu is launching a new student offer, giving U.S. college students unlimited access to Hulu's ad-supported plan for a reduced price of $1.99 a month. Starting today, eligible students over the age of 18 can sign up for the deal and watch Hulu's full streaming library of movies and TV shows for a 65% discount, while their student enrollment status remains verified. Whether watching the latest episode of a Hulu Original on a study break, bingeing entire seasons of fan-favorite comedies and reality TV, or planning the next roommate movie night, Hulu has something for everyone. Typically $5.99/per month, Hulu's ad-supported plan gives viewers unlimited, on-demand access to a massive streaming TV library of hit shows like Keeping Up with the Kardashians, The Bachelor, Brooklyn Nine-Nine, It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia, and Family Guy, along with acclaimed Hulu Originals including Pen15, Little Fires Everywhere, Ramy, Animaniacs and Solar Opposites. And with Hulu's Watch Party feature available on thousands of titles, it's easier than ever for students to watch with their friends and classmates who have Hulu, no matter where they are. How to Subscribe College students can visit Hulu.com/student to learn more and sign-up for Hulu's student offer.
